PUPPET SHOWS

Youngsters Wide-Eyed

Young eyes were widened Saturday when regional library closed Young Canada's Book Week by staging three puppet shows in the children's room of the library. The show was conducted by Mrs. P. R. Hanson and three of her children from Spruce Home. (Herald Pictures)

Monroe, Gable Now Co-Starring

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Gossip today said Hollywood's newest romance co-stars Marilyn Monroe and Clark Gable. Press agents hope it lasts—if it exists—until they can be co-starred in a movie planned for them.

The talk started with a photo, released Friday by Marilyn's studio, 20th Century-Fox, which showed the two dancing together at a party two weeks ago. The night before Marilyn entered a hospital for minor surgery.

When Marilyn entered the hospital she received a note and three dozen roses, apparently from Gable. The next day and every day thereafter for a week, Marilyn got more roses and a card, always signed "Clark."

Russia Planning Security System?

By EDDY GILMORE

LONDON (AP)—The Soviet Union has given strong indications recently that it is planning to set up an East European security system in answer to the West's North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

It is believed that Marshals Georgi Zhukov, Vasily Sokolovsky and Konstantin Rokossovsky, all Soviet war heroes, are working out details of the new alliance. They also are expected to play leading roles in the military organization.

The Soviet Union and its satellites have signed mutual assistance treaties and trade accords. But as far as is known, East Europe has no formal interlocking military alliance placing war resources under a single command.

British officials say Moscow's current propaganda line is practically spelling out the Kremlin's plans, which they believe will materialize at a conference scheduled for Nov. 20.

In a note to European countries and the United States last week, Russia suggested an international conference on that date to discuss European security.

Soviet satellite states, however, are falling into line. To date, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Romania, Albania, Bulgaria, East Germany and Hungary have approved the idea and declared their readiness to participate in a European security system.

Finland also has accepted the Soviet invitation, but only if other invited countries participate. The Helsinki government was the first outside the Iron Curtain to reply formally to the Russians.

British sources believe Russia will hold the conference even if the West declines to attend. It will give them a platform from which to set up their own security system.

Census Likely Every 5 Years

OTTAWA (CP)—That man with the notebook likely will be coming to your door again in 1956. But he may not be as inquisitive as he was in 1951.

Officials disclose that the government has decided on a national census every five years instead of 10, to provide a more accurate gauge of shifts and growth of Canada's population.

One of the major reasons for the cut in the years between censusing, they said, is to provide the government with accurate population estimates on which to base payments to provinces.

In the years between the decennial census, statisticians try to estimate the population growth by means of registrations of births and deaths and the emigration and immigration flow.

This method at times has proved fairly accurate; other times it has not. Often the statisticians fall behind in measuring accurately the population of each province and on the estimate of the value of production on a per capita basis.

In the future the 10-year count will still be more important than the five-year count. Questions under the decennial census still will be more detailed and it still will guide redistribution of federal political ridings. Boundary changes still will be considered only every decade.

Fog Blankets British Coast

LONDON (CP)—Thick, rolling fog blanketed the east coast of Britain today and ringed London in a freak belt that encircled the city but left the centre of town clear.

London airport was virtually closed down with flights being delayed for hours. Incoming transatlantic passengers were held up at Prestwick, Scotland.

In 18 eastern counties the thick sheet reduced visibility to almost zero. Trains were running late all through the affected area.

On the Continent, another thick roll of fog closed down shipping in the river Elbe and the Kiel canal in Germany.

At New York, for the second day in a row a heavy fog and misty rain settled over the city, slowing harbor operations and crippling air traffic.

At La Guardia airport all runways were closed this morning and no planes landed or took off. Airlines shifted some of their flights to Idlewild and Newark, N. J. airports.

Peace Committee Denies Report

SAIGON, Indochina (AP)—The Canadian-Indian-Polish armistice commission said today it has received no complaints that either the Communist or French forces are increasing their armed forces in violation of the Geneva agreements.

It also said that there have been no shipments of arms either to the north or south since the July nine-power Geneva conference ended the Indochina war.

Asked whether it would consider United States training of Vietnamese troops a violation of the Geneva accords, the commission replied through its Canadian member, Ambassador Sherwood Lett, that this was a question which had not been raised. He went on to say that if it was placed before the three nations group it would be considered on the facts.

Both U. S. State Secretary Dulles and British Foreign Secretary Eden asserted recently that the Communist-led Vietnamese in the north are increasing armed forces out of all proportion to that area.

The Vietnamese retorted that the U. S. special ambassador, J. Lawrence Collins, has been sent to South Viet Nam to enlarge the Vietnamese national army in violation of the agreements.

It appears evident that neither the French nor the Vietnamese have considered these charges sufficiently important to justify formal complaints.

Last-Minute Amendment Introduced To UN Committee

By WILLIAM HARCOURT
Canadian Press Staff Writer
UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (CP)—India delayed a vote to endorse President Eisenhower's atom-for-peace pool Friday by introducing a last-minute amendment to enlarge the circle of nations taking part in preliminary negotiations.

Britain's Anthony Nutting and Henry Cabot Lodge of the United States said they could not have this provision written into the compromise resolution already agreed upon by Russia and the seven sponsoring Western powers.

They both promised the 60-nation political committee, however, that the views of every country wishing to be heard on the proposed international atomic energy agency would be taken into account before it is submitted to final ratification.

In submitting his amendment India's V. K. Krishna Menon was supported by several nations including Ecuador, Burma and Yugoslavia as several speakers called for a broadening of what some privately referred to as a "closed club."

SEE DELAY
The sponsoring powers regard such an amendment as Menon proposed as one that could only result in delay in establishing the agency.

Both Lodge and Nutting pointed this out in the committee, which did not recess until nearly 7 p.m. EST, and was the scene of much unusual activity and private conferences as Menon tried to win supporters.

His amendment suggests that "member states willing and able to participate in its early establishment by entering into consultations and negotiations with those states which are already so engaged."

These states include the seven sponsors—Canada, the U.S., Britain, France, Australia, Belgium and South Africa—plus Portugal and Russia.

Lodge said "we are opposed to this type of proposal which we believe would delay matters for such a long time as to jeopardize the whole project, if not indeed to destroy it."

TAKEN IN ACCOUNT
Nutting pointed out that the views of other nations which already have spoken on the resolution, had been taken into account in revising it. He added that the resolution now provides for further consultations with other countries.

Before the debate was adjourned until Monday, Menon asked several questions about the negotiations, the final parties to the agency, and whether other states would subscribe to a treaty reached by eight states, one of which (Portugal) is not a member of the UN.

Adenauer's Cabinet Approves Accords

By BRACK CURRY
BONN, Germany (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's cabinet overrode a rebellion by five ministers Friday and approved the Paris agreements to bring West Germany into the Western defence alliance.

Bills to ratify the agreements were sent immediately to parliament amid predictions by Adenauer and his party leaders that ratification will be completed by mid-January. But there were indications of rough sailing ahead.

Four cabinet ministers of the Free Democratic party—West Germany's third largest—and a member of Adenauer's own Christian Democrats said "no" when the cabinet voted.

This made the vote 13 to 5 for the agreements with one minister absent.

This was the first open rebellion in Adenauer's cabinet on a major foreign policy issue and it made the cabinet decision a questionable victory for the 78-year-old chancellor.

The opposition of the five ministers was directed against the controversial French-German agreement to make the German-populated Saar a "European" territory. This agreement is one of the Paris accords.

Rail Judgment Handed Down

OTTAWA (CP)—The federal government's arbitrator in the railway-union contract dispute that threatened a general rail strike last summer Friday handed down his judgment.

Chief Justice Gordon McGregor Sloan passed his findings to representatives of the disputants and to the labor department, under an agreement that they are not to be made public before 10 a. m. EST. Monday.

All recipients of the 15-page decision declined to discuss terms with newspaper men. So did the arbitrator, after issuing copies to the disputants in sealed envelopes in the hotel room where he has been working on it since Nov. 9.

Under a Sept. 18 order-in-council of cabinet, the major railways and unions representing 145,000 non-operating workers must accept the B. C. Justice's rulings.

The unions, which had been threatening a strike to enforce fringe benefit demands, agreed in mid-August to accept the binding arbitration after being told by Prime Minister St. Laurent that Parliament would be called into emergency session to pass strike-averting legislation if they did not.

WAGES NOT ISSUE
The unions had been demanding 18 days a year paid sick leave—cumulative from year to year—eight paid statutory holidays a year, longer annual vacations and higher overtime pay for Sunday work. No general wage increase is involved.

In a long string of negotiations that started almost a year ago, the railways initially contended they could grant no part of the demands, which they estimated could cost around $60,000,000 a year. The unions put the expense at about $34,000,000.

By the time negotiations conducted under the eye of the government here collapsed in mid-August, each side had made concessions, but they tripped up finally on the statutory holidays issue.

Eventually, all four union demands were referred in full to the 56-year-old arbitrator with full powers to grant or reject in whole or in part any or all of the demands.

United States Transport Man Views Rail's Agreed Rates

OTTAWA (CP)—A United States transportation expert said Friday that attempts to preserve Canadian railways at the expense of the motor transport industry are shortsighted and doomed to failure.

James Knudson of Washington, administrator of transportation during the last war, made the statement to a royal commission investigating agreed charge contracts. Agreed charges are special low contract rates given by the railways in return for a guaranteed percentage of a shipper's business.

Mr. Knudson, a member of the U. S. interstate commerce commission from 1950 until early this year, appeared as a witness for the Canadian Trucking Association, which seeks the rescinding of legislation granting the railways the right to make agreed charges.

The railways want greater freedom to enter into contracts with shippers to enable them to meet increasing truck competition. However, the truckers say agreed charges allow the railways to capture large blocks of freight traffic.

"The day is past when railroads alone can perform all of the surface transportation services that our contemporary civilization requires," Mr. Knudson said.

"Attempts to preserve the status quo at the expense of other carriers seem to me to be shortsighted and doomed to failure. Plans to co-ordinate the uses of all facilities for the public welfare seems to me on the other hand to be the hope of a solvent tomorrow for the various facilities."

He said nothing should be done to weaken the ability of truckers to serve the country in event of a defence emergency.

SENATORS 'VERY IMPRESSED'
Manfield of Montana described this meeting as "a very spontaneous success." Republican Senator Margaret Chase Smith of Maine was "very impressed."

The premier's speech Friday to 500 American reporters at the National Press Club was described by one seasoned Washington reporter as "clearing up any remnants of misunderstanding about his position in foreign policy."

The cordiality of the toasts at the dinner given him by State Secretary Dulles Thursday night was one symptom of this impact. His reception by the Senate was another. Democratic Senator Mike

B.C. Celebrates Its Birthday

FORT LANGLEY, B. C. (CP)—It was cold and raining here 96 years ago Friday when New Caledonia went out of existence and British Columbia was born as Canada's west coast province.

Judge Matthew Begbie, on Nov. 19, 1858, administered the oath of office in a log fort to Sir James Douglas, governor.

Some of the log buildings still stand on the banks of the Fraser river, 30 miles east of Vancouver, where Fort Langley restoration society plans to rebuild the stockade as it was nearly 100 years ago.

The society gathered for its annual Douglas Day dinner in weather much the same as that experienced on the day when British Columbia was written into Canadian maps.

CREATED IN 1858
The mainland colony was created by the British government in 1858 in recognition of the change brought about in the Hudson's Bay Company fur preserve by gold-seekers flooding the rich Fraser river sand bars. Nine years earlier, the crown colony of Vancouver Island was created and in 1866, the two colonies joined and Victoria became capital.

Coast To Face Storm Again

VANCOUVER (CP)—Victims of coastal British Columbia's surprise floods cleaned up Friday night, but faced the prospect of having to do it all over again.

Grey skies showered only light rain over the coast Friday, the first respite in a week of pounding downpour which sent some streams into flood and caused heavy damage in several areas.

However, the weather report called for gales to sweep another storm over the coastline sometime during the night.

Narrow escape was reported from the Nanaimo area of Vancouver island, west of here, where suburban residents worked four hours under flood lights in a successful effort to save the Hare-storm over the coastline.

The first round of the Nanaimo battle was won when debris was cleared from spillway gates. Then the system plugged again and the level rose six inches in half an hour, menacing the area before being cleaned a second time.

Mendes-France Wins Popularity

By HAROLD KING
WASHINGTON (Reuters)—French Premier Mendes-France is winning his battle for popularity with the American public and overcoming the vague feelings of mistrust which prevailed here prior to his arrival.

This is the fast-growing opinion among political and press leaders here.

The cordiality of the toasts at the dinner given him by State Secretary Dulles Thursday night was one symptom of this impact. His reception by the Senate was another. Democratic Senator Mike estimates of him and of France generally on the assumption that France cannot do much independently because she needs American dollar aid.

On this point Mendes-France has apparently been speaking with brutal frankness. Dulles and other high government representatives.

He has emphasized that he has not come here to ask for money and does not intend to do so. He has reminded Dulles that the amount of money France can spend on the common Western effort in Indochina has been fixed in as it stood.

THIRD CENTRALIZED SCHOOL IN DISTRICT

Main Speakers At Official Opening

Student Choir Entertains Guests

Another milestone in modern rural education was reached Friday within the Prince Albert larger school unit, with the official opening of its third centralized school, gradually eliminating the old-fashioned, scattered schoolhouse system. Latest central school is the Wild Rose, four miles north of the Holbein corner, which eliminated seven schools. Built at a cost of $50,000 in modern architecture, it has six classrooms, a large auditorium and plenty of elbow room for the 145 pupils and six teachers. Two school buses will bring the children to school and take them home through winter and summer months. The school is on the power line and is heated by coal. Attending the opening Friday were some 300 persons. Deputy education minister Allan McCallum was main speaker and short addresses were made by school board chairman George Rowden, Shellbrook R.M. reeve, student representative Art Mason, school principal C. Schwandt, unit chairman George Irving, consulting engineer and designer, Bruce Hamilton and unit superintendent George Kruger. Pupils from the various class rooms entertained the audience with a good concert program. Shown here, top picture, left to right are Mr. Irving, Mr. Kruger, Mr. Rowden, Mr. McCallum, Mr. Smith and Mr. Hamilton. In the bottom picture, a choir of pupils presents one of the concert numbers.

TEEN TALK

Dance Deadline

BY SHIRLEY KING

PACI Correspondent For The Herald

No admittance after 10:00 p.m. That's the new rule which was passed Thursday at the students' activities association's regular monthly meeting. It applies to all forthcoming school dances.

The suggestion introduced by Mr. Kerr, principal, gave way to spirited discussion. Main reason for the motion was the abundance of non-collegians who try to gain admittance to dances.

Teachers must be present to see they don't get into the auditorium. The non-students loitering in the entrance hall often become impatient. They refuse to leave when asked.

The teachers are not eager to continue acting as "bouncers" and the only solution is to lock the doors early.

What will be the result of this initiative taken by the S.A.A.? There are two possibilities: (1) Attendance may drop sharply, or (2) Students may arrive earlier thus making the dances livelier and longer. One certain outcome is that the rowdy stragglers who arrive late will become obsolete.

Students wishing to gain admittance after lock-up time will have to make beforehand arrangements. But they won't receive a positive reply unless they have an infallible reason for tardiness.

Also approved by the S. A. A.'s general assembly was the purchasing of house crests. A simple design will consist of the house name embroidered in the house color with a background of white.

LINDA BROMMELAND, secretary, will go to each form next week to take orders for the black satin collegiate jackets. Since the only way to obtain one of these bomber style jackets is through the S.A.A., wearers are restricted to collegiate students. Arrangements for the teen talent show will be arranged by a committee of four. Unofficial date for the show is December 3.

Fluoridation Advocated For Benefit Of Children

Fluoridation of municipal water supplies will reduce dental caries in children by 60 per cent and is harmless to the human body, Dr. S. A. McGregor, international dental authority told a meeting attended by about 125 persons in the collegiate auditorium Friday.

The meeting was sponsored by Prince Albert council of home and school clubs.

Dr. McGregor is head of the children's department, faculty of dentistry, University of Toronto, head of the dental department of the Toronto hospital for sick children; and dental adviser to the Ontario division of Canadian Red Cross.

He said anti-fluoridation groups were "grabbing the opportunity of enjoying the benefits of fluoridation away from the children."

He said anti-fluoridation groups were "offering no substitution for fluoridation" in their negative propaganda.

Dr. McGregor said he wondered how these people would feel if some of the children who are suffering dental disease were paraded past them.

He said fluorine had been subjected to "one of the longest experiments in medical history" and had been found safe.

TAKE IT OUT

"I wonder why these people don't ask the government to take fluorine out of the water in places where it occurs naturally? What about those 'poor people' who must drink that water?" he asked.

He compared the attack carried out by anti-fluoridation groups with an incident that occurred recently in his practice in Toronto.

"If I had a parent that her child needed a space maintainer, she telephoned me later in the day and said she had decided against allowing me to put the space maintainer in the child's mouth. She explained that she has asked her neighbor, who had advised against it," he said.

EDUCATION AND HEALTH

"I wonder how those people who were against vaccination would have felt now that lives have been saved?" he said.

Dr. McGregor said education and health are related closely. He stated that "a teacher can save more lives than a doctor but, if approach to health teaching was wrong, could ruin more lives than the doctor could save."

He said teachers, members of the "largest profession in the world" could not learn sufficient in a six-month training period to instruct children adequately. He said he felt teachers should be required to take four years of study.

He said effect of teachers on a child's health was illustrated in Newfoundland, where teaching is below acceptable standards and children's dental health is poor.

He said a graph plotting dental health and education are almost parallel.

TRUTH EVADED

He said many parents evade the truth when asked how much candy their children eat.

"Do you know how many teaspoons of sugar are in an average piece of layer cake - 15," he said.

He said sugar, after entering the mouth, begins working on the teeth within three minutes and the action is maintained for 90 minutes.

"This action is kept strong all day. They have large portions of sugar on breakfast food in the morning, a sucker at recess, a jam sandwich after school and a cup of cocoa and sweets at bedtime."

SWEETS RESPONSIBLE — "The mother of a child with decayed teeth told me that she would have to bring the child in every two months, instead of the customary six months. If they eat a large amount of sweets, you could bring him in every two months."

Dr. McGregor said he had made a dental survey in Europe and had found that the best teeth were found in places where few sweets were used. He said English children had poor teeth, while French children who "weren't getting the junk" had teeth in almost perfect condition.

CNIB Committee Reviews Work

Reports were heard on the annual banquet for the blind, blind tag day and welfare work at a recent meeting of the local advisory committee of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind. Chairman was president Arthur Binns.

R. L. Jones reported on the tag day proceeds and told how money collected was distributed between the three blind associations in the city.

Mrs. Mary Lamb reported on welfare work during the past month. J. J. Rusk of Saskatoon told the meeting that the Prince Albert annual banquet for the blind this year had been the largest gathering the CNIB had had of blind persons. The banquet was held in conjunction with the Lions Club.

Mr. Rusk gave a brief description of special classes and lectures given to parents of pre-school blind children. At the last gathering in Saskatoon, 20 sets of parents were on hand from Northern Saskatchewan centres.

The next meeting will be held December 2.

The change had been made without untoward incidents, and the result is a "marked increase in over-all combat effectiveness," with economies in manpower, material and money. The report, which notes that progress among civilian employees of the Defense Department "lags far behind" the military integration program, says it is paradoxical "that the Negro citizen in uniform has frequently been made to feel more at home overseas than in his own home town." This is a condition that may be expected to change as time diminishes the prejudice which has until this year set the Negro soldier apart from his white fellow-servicemen.

Net Housing Deficit Since 1946

The loss is reflected in the continuing dire housing shortage, and the high rents and purchase prices being charged. A more vigorous program is required not only to fill a social need, but to sustain employment at a time when jobs are scarcer. The monthly review points out that a factor in the rate of construction this year has been the reduction of down payments ordered last year by the government, and the introduction of mortgage insurance. Possibly down payments could be reduced even further, and the life of the loan—now 25 years—extended so as not to raise monthly charges. Since an increase in the amount of construction would serve two extremely important purposes, a more liberal mortgage policy might well be given consideration at the next session of Parliament.

Third-Degree Treatment Used By Detroit Police

CALGARY (CP) — William Lee Wallace, an electrical engineer employed by a Vancouver construction firm, said Friday that Detroit police used third-degree methods to force him to confess to a murder he did not commit.

Testifying as a crown witness in the murder trial of Donald Winslow Henderson, 37-year-old native of Moose Jaw, Wallace said he based his confession on what he had read in newspapers and "just filled up the rest."

Wallace was brought to Calgary face a charge of murdering a woman, Levesque, 22-year-old Edmonton waitress whose beaten body was found in an auto court here Aug. 11, 1949.

Wallace, his wife and a friend, George Salisbury, were in the cabin next to Henderson's on Aug. 11, Wallace said.

Wallace said he and Salisbury were in their cabin when the bat-

Winnipeg Grain

WINNIPEG (CP)—An advance in flax prices featured dull trading today on the Winnipeg grain exchange.

Exporters and international houses bought flax. The demand was believed connected with either old or anticipated business.

The barley trade was fairly active with exporters and processors making purchases. Trade reports indicated a cargo of barley was sold abroad out of the west coast while parcels went to the United Kingdom from the east coast.

Oats were mostly a domestic business. Shippers were the best buyers. Rye prices advanced on firmness in U. S. markets.

Overnight export loadings of Canadian wheat included U. K. 775,000 bushels and Germany 205,000. Lakehead prices for top grades of Class Two, 1W, wheat and domestic wheat were unchanged.

Closing prices:

Oats: Dec 84 1/2; May 1/2 lower 85 1/2; May 1/2 lower 84 1/2; Jly 1/2 lower 83 1/2.

Barley: Dec 1 1/4 higher 1.18 1/2; May 1/2 higher 1.16 1/2; Jly 1/2 higher 1.12 1/2.

Wall Street

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market resumed its forward momentum Friday after a session of hesitancy.

Advances carried the market on average to within a short distance of the 25-year high established earlier in the week.

Prices were up between 1 and 2 points in most instances, with a few stocks pushing well ahead of the rest. Losses were mostly fractional.

Propaganda Big Problem

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Associated Press writers back from Russia and Japan warned today that the Kremlin is directing a propaganda campaign everywhere in the Free World designed to create turmoil and poison minds against Americans.

They told newspaper editors attending the Associated Press Managing Editors Association meeting that the United States must maintain eternal vigilance to keep these campaigns from succeeding.

Robert Euston, AP chief of bureau for Japan and Korea, said the big plum sought by the Soviet Union in the Far East is Japan and its industries, but that the Communists efforts there are unlikely to succeed.

Euston said loss of Japan to the Communists would be an "unparalleled tragedy" and could "tip the scales of world power against us for all time."

William L. Ryan, AP's foreign news analyst who spent some time in Moscow, said the U.S. can't match maneuverability of the Russians, but "we hope to beat them by exposing them to as much light as we can bring to bear upon them."

Euston and Ryan spoke during a foreign news workshop session. During a workshop on women and the news the editors heard Mary Margaret McBride, columnist and commentator, appeal for more consideration for women reporters in reporting assignments.

Miss McBride, who writes a daily column for the AP, said she had been reporting since she was 16 years old, and during her active reporting career had tired of always being given the job of doing "the woman's angle."

"Women reporters are just as competent as men to do most stories and sometimes they can do a better job," she said.

Ottawa May Start Council For Cultural Developments

OTTAWA (CP)—Prime Minister St. Laurent indicated Friday night the government soon may announce the establishment of a Canada council to help stimulate the country's cultural development.

He told the second national conference of the Humanities Research Council of Canada that "the creation of such a body will be of great importance to Canada both in assisting cultural development within our borders and maintaining our relations with cultural organizations abroad."

"We also hope that it will provide the machinery to facilitate even more extensive research in the humanities."

Mr. St. Laurent's statements were included in the text of a speech issued to the press before delivery.

The establishment of a Canada council was recommended in 1951 by the royal commission on arts, letters and sciences. It proposed that the council should encourage the development of the arts, letters, humanities and social sciences.

"However, I am sure you will all agree that a cultural development cannot be forced by governmental grant or agency. These can help but in the final analysis the responsibility for growth lies primarily with the universities and with the citizens themselves."

You, Too, Can Laugh At Winter

WITH THE

Prince Albert Refineries Home Service Plan

END WORRY

Our automatic delivery service puts an end to winter worries. No more "Hoping you have enough oil" . . . we keep your tank filled by the degree-day scientific system. No other company can offer this service. It is just one reason why you should join the Home Service Plan today.

CUT REPAIR BILLS

PARL Burner Fuels are treated with AMER-OID, the new wonder additive that dissolves sludge, reduces carbon and gives you more even burning qualities to every drop of oil. In addition, Parl fuel oils are "factory-fresh", cannot pick up impurities and trouble-causing tars because there is no unnecessary handling or storage. It means savings on your furnace service bills.

EMERGENCY SERVICE

If you need oil at any time, day or night, in an emergency, CALL 6-4-6-4 and our friendly service department will bring you enough of the right grade of oil to see you through until a regular delivery can be made. This emergency service is open to all Prince Albert fuel oil users.

SAVE MONEY

Hotter-burning PARL Fuel Oils are refined by the latest scientific methods from an asphalt base crude. It is an irrefutable fact that oils from asphalt crudes burn several degrees hotter than other domestic furnace oils. With more B.T.U.'s per gallon, you need less oil to do the same job . . . and save money on your winter fuel budget. In addition with AMER-OID, you get more even heat, more complete combustion, to get full heating value out of every single drop of oil.

EASY PAYMENTS

Put an end to large fuel bills. Spread your fuel oil budget over the entire winter, and spring and summer, too. If you wish. Our budget service is open to all members of the Home Service Plan. Under it, you make a small, regular payment each month, one that you'll never miss, and never again face a large bill for oil when the weather gets colder.

METERED DELIVERY

A fleet of new delivery trucks, all equipped with delivery meters, brings your Parl Fuel Oils to your home. The exact amount of oil delivered is printed right on the delivery slip. You pay for only what you receive. No guesses, no estimates. Designed to save you money.

Flowers Bank Cathedral Altar For Tekano-Carrick Ceremony

Bouquets of chrysanthemums banked the altar of St. Alban's Cathedral to create a lovely setting for the wedding of Laura Marie Carrick, daughter of Mrs. Louise Carrick of Prince Albert and William Russell Tekano, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Tekano of Blaine Lake.

Canon R. L. Taylor performed the double-ring ceremony and Mr. George Dobson played the wedding music which consisted of "The Wedding March" from Wagner's Lohengrin and soloist Mrs. June Graham of Saskatoon sang "Because".

SATIN, LACE GOWN

Given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Howard Church, the bride appeared in a floor length gown of traditional white satin featuring a double skirt of nylon tulle and tiers of Chantilly lace. The fitted jacket of lace was styled with a Peter Pan collar dotted with seed pearls and long sleeves which ended in lily points at the wrists. Her diadem headdress, studded with pearls and rhinestones held in place the scalloped chapel veil. She carried a semi-cascade bouquet of red roses and stephanotis.

Bridesmaids were her cousin, Miss Maureen Neil, attired in ballerina length gown of mauve lace over nylon tulle and Miss Connie Hood wearing a ballerina length frock of pale green lace over nylon tulle. Both wore matching head-dresses and carried colonial bouquets of mixed flowers.

Mr. Ted Hearne was the best man while ushers were Messrs. Norman Quick and Robert Bone of Saskatoon.

BUFFET SUPPER

A buffet supper was served at the Empress Hotel reception. Guests were received by the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Tekano; the bride's aunt, Mrs. Howard Church and her grandmother, Mrs. L. Heron.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Carrick wore a gray tailored suit with black and tangerine accessories. The groom's mother chose a rust tailored suit with green accessories. Their corsages were of yellow roses.

A lace cloth draped the bride's table, which was centered by a decorated three-tiered wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom. Tapers and bouquets of white mums complimented the arrangements. Servitors were Mrs. Robert Bone and Mrs. Norman Quick.

Mrs. Quick presided at the guest registry and Mrs. Borden Neil had charge of the gift table. Telegrams of congratulation were received from Saskatoon and Vancouver.

CALIFORNIA HONEYMOON
For travelling to California, the bride donned a chic suit of beige colored wool topped by a loose finger-jacket of brown and beige check. Avocado green shoes and bag with chocolate brown hat completed her ensemble. The groom in a tuxedo was a corsage of gardenias.

On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Tekano will be at home to friends at 740 Seventh Avenue North, Saskatoon.

Out of town guests were from Saskatoon, Blaine Lake and Melville, Sask. The bride is a graduate of the Saskatoon City Hospital, School of Nursing and the groom is a graduate of the College of Pharmacy, of the University of Saskatchewan.

Mrs. A. Barsky New Lodge Head

Mrs. A. Barsky was elected to the office of Noble Grand of the Golden Links Rebekah Lodge No. 6 when election of officers took place for 1955.

Others named were vice-grand, Mrs. Harold Gillies; recording secretary, Mrs. P. Hiltz; financial secretary, Miss Lorna Biltz; treasurer, Mrs. W. Barker and trustee, Mrs. W. Rowhead.

ANNUAL TEA
A report on the annual Tea and Bazaar was very gratifying. The members were reminded of the Rebekah and I.O.O.F. Card Party to be held on November 22.

Arrangements to cater to a banquet for the Odd Fellows were completed, with Mrs. A. Barsky as convener. Mrs. A. E. Porter reported that the project was nearing completion.

The refreshments were served by Mrs. J. Dunnett and her committee.

Brunette With Rheumatoid Arthritis Owes Recovery To Crippled Veteran

HALIFAX (CP)—Seven years ago doctors doubted whether 22-year-old Laurena Deveau would ever walk again. During the long days in a hospital bed, she had doubts too.

The pretty brunette now can walk a little without crutches. Her legs, withered by the ravages of rheumatoid arthritis, are stronger. Her decalcified bones are becoming harder. They no longer crumble like chalk.

Laurena doesn't know how she's done it, except that she had drawn on the inspiration of a paralyzed man coupled with her own unyielding persistence.

CONFIDENT DECISION
"I just decided I was going to walk again," she says. "But Walter had a lot to do with it."

Her hazel eyes brighten when she talks of Walter Callow, Canadian humanitarian. The blind and legless veteran of the First World War spends his time in Halifax veteran's hospital planning the comfort of fellow cripples.

"He had a lot more to do with it than I did. I heard about him while I was in hospital and figured that if a blind and paralyzed man could do what he's doing, then I could get on my feet and perhaps some day help." Today, as Callow's office manager, she looks after all the paper work, takes dictation when the other secretary is busy, does the errands and

Women Don't Like Women Who Have Nearly Everything

In England 450 women employees walked out on strike the day a pretty 25-year-old redhead was made their forewoman.

The women refused to accept her as their boss because she was "too young and beautiful for the job."

Their action may not make sense to men, but it is easy for women to figure out.

When that 25-year-old redhead was made forewoman she suddenly had everything—youth, beauty, AND the position of top woman.

Now it is a well-known fact that women won't permit, when they can possibly prevent it, a woman's having everything.

BEAUTIFUL BUT DUMB IS OK
It's not so bad if a woman has everything money can buy if she is no longer young, or is homely, or has a husband who is a notorious woman chaser.

It's all right if a young woman is extremely pretty if she can be marked off as beautiful but dumb.

In an office the efficient young woman is not resented, so long as she looks the part of grim efficiency.

And a woman boss can be tolerated so long as the women who work for her can feel superior to her in some way, either because she is old or grouchy, or was never able to get a husband, or is as homely as a mud fence.

Let her be boss—if that is how it is. But if a woman is young and beautiful AND boss, how are the women who have to take orders from her going to console themselves?

Why, she's got EVERYTHING! And women aren't going to stand for that, not if there is anything she has got that they can belittle or take away.

Afternoon Auxiliary Hears Report On Proposed Study Book For 1955

"The Church of India—Canadiana the great question. Viewpoint" by R. M. Bennett, the GREAT DEMANDS study book for 1955 was introduced before the 1955 election or disaster steps in, Nations can help, and give assistance to India, and Canada can help.

W.M.S. of Wesley United church met Thursday.

Mrs. Culp stated that India would be studied by Anglicans, Baptists, and Presbyterians, as well as the United church groups.

MANY PEOPLE
She stressed the magnitude of that ancient country, but said that its greatest wealth were the people—361 million divided into sects of Hindus, Moslems, Christians, Sikhs, Buddhists, and Jaines.

There are more than 108,000 villages, and large cities comprised 10 per cent of the population, but the future, Mrs. Culp said, depend.

Prime Minister Nehru is making it was announced that the joint stupendous efforts to make a for-Australian party would be held in December, and each to bring a pot through new methods of agricultural luck. A social hour followed lunch, farming, and irrigation, but the meeting when Mrs. C. McInwood was the great problem, and Mrs. Robson served refreshments.

STRIKEN AT 16
Laurena, barely 16 and with hopes of entering commercial school, became stricken overnight at her home in Weymouth, N.S.

"The hospital told me I would be there a week or 10 days," she says. She stayed three years, two months and two days. "And I sure counted every day."

Unceasing pain wracked her body and she rarely ever left her bed.

Determined to walk, she slowly began her recovery. She could be moved in a wheelchair, which meant an outing in Callow's coaches. She went to sports events. Finally, weighing 90 pounds and gaunt, she left hospital.

BRIGHTER DAYS
After several jobs in city business establishments, one of Callow's coach hostesses mentioned there was a vacancy in his office.

"It was something I had once hoped to do, so I came. I still have to use my crutches now and then, but I'll probably be able to get rid of them in two or three years."

"Walter is very considerate and understanding about my troubles, and I'm just as understanding about his. I'm really settled here now, and like it a lot."

BABY'S WAYS

In selecting a toy for a child who is a hospital patient, try to find something he can use alone, something that won't be likely to make a mess or too much clutter. And it mustn't be noisy.

Think of mama and the nurse as well as the child when you select the gift and you won't go wrong.

If you ever have reason to suspect that a friend may regret having told you something about her personal life, never bring up the subject yourself. Friends sometimes in a low moment tell things they later wish they hadn't.

When they do they appreciate having the matter seemingly forgotten.

If an acquaintance is careful to call you Mr. Brown, don't insist on calling him Charlie.

Some persons just don't like to have anyone but family and close friends call them by their first names.

Canapes Gives Pleasant Start To Special Dinner Parties

BY GAYNOR MADDOX

Canapes and other appetizing tidbits, served either in the living room before dinner or at table when guests sit down, start the feast on a pleasant note. Serve chilled cider, or fruit juices with them.

Here are a few easy suggestions using deviled ham. We always keep a few of the larger 4½-ounce size cans on hand for making quick canapes when unexpected guests arrive.

DEVILED ROLL CANAPES

One green pepper, cleaned, 1 fresh firm tomato, 1 small onion, 1 package cream cheese, 1 family size (4½-ounce) can deviled ham, 1 small bag potato chips, crushed, 3 hard cushion or club rolls. Chop together pepper, tomato and onion until very finely minced. Drain, mix in cream cheese, deviled ham and potato chips. Remove slice from one end of each roll and use a fork to pull out soft centers. Fill hollowed rolls with mixture. Wrap rolls in foil and chill overnight. To serve, cut in thin slices with a sharp knife.

DEVILED TOMATO DIP

(Makes about 1½ cups sauce)
One cup catsup, 1 can (2½-ounce) deviled ham, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard, 2 tablespoons wine vinegar, ¼ teaspoon pepper, other seasonings to taste. Combine all ingredients and mix thoroughly. Add ¼ cup thick sour cream to use as a salad dressing. May be served hot or cold and used as sauce or dip. Particularly good with fish sticks to be dipped and eaten out of hand.

DEVILED ROLL-UPS

Six slices soft white bread, 1 family size (4½-ounce) can deviled ham, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard, 1 thick slice sharp or Swiss cheese. Remove hard crusts and spread each slice with combined deviled ham and mustard. Cut cheese into 6 strips. Place a strip of cheese at one end of spread bread and roll up. Secure with a pick and chill. Serve

St. George's Greek Catholic Church Scene of Pretty Fall Wedding

A pretty fall wedding was solemnized at St. George's Greek Catholic church in Prince Albert when Mary Anne Dickie became the bride of Theodore Kulyk. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Dickie of Prince Albert, while the groom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. lovely floral scene. The altar was Michael Kulyk of St. Julien, Sask.

Rev. B. Ocedae performed the double ring ceremony before a lovely floral scene. The altar was banked with baskets of gladioli.

CLASSIC BEAUTY

Entering the church on the arm of her father the strains of "Wedding March" from Wagner's Lohengrin, the bride presented a charming picture in her gown with an accordion pleated nylon skirt over satin, bodice of Chantilly lace with colonial type cap. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

The charming dark haired bride was preceded down the aisle by two attendants, her cousin, Miss Mary Moldovan, maid of honor who was attired in a yellow gown and Miss Mary Herman in a gown of mauve. They were matching head-dresses and gloves and carried bouquets of carnations.

The flower girls, little Misses Helen Marie Austin and Linda Irene Andruske wore white nylon and lace gowns similar to that of the bride with matching blue sashes and mits. Forget-me-nots were arranged as the coronet headpiece and they carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations.

GROOM'S ATTENDANTS

The groom was attended by Messrs. Paul Herchuk of Shellbrook, Sask., and William Woronuk of Prince Albert. A reception was held at the West End Hall where more than 200 guests signed the guest registry. Miss Margaret Dickie and Mrs. Nestor Yurchak were in charge of guest register.

For receiving the guests, the bride's mother chose a navy dress with beige accessories and a rose corsage. The groom's mother chose a two piece frock with matching accessories and pink rose corsage.

BRIDE'S TABLE

The bride's table was draped with a hand crocheted white lace table cloth, centred by a four-tiered wedding cake embossed in white roses, topped by beribboned bells. Bouquets of gladioli and silver candle holders entwined with Lily of the Valley completed the setting.

The couple will make their home in Prince Albert.

Young Blonde Secretary In Charge Of First Industrial State Records

By BRUCE LEVETT

NEW WESTMINSTER, B. C. (CP)—Joyce Nesbitt never leaves work early. Nor does she take time out to run to the corner store for mid-morning coffee.

For Joyce, a 22-year-old, brown-eyed blonde, works on an isolated island of sand and meadows, the only girl among 100 men preparing the way for a $225,000,000 industrial development.

Her job is to keep records for the contracting firm building north of America's first industrial estate, a network of factories to be leased to secondary industries.

She is a secretary whose telephone never rings—it calls her by name. There is no electricity into the project and all calls are made by radio-telephone.

"I like it out here because there is always something happening," she said.

Outside her window, a new power shovel was scooping up sand. "That's a one-and-a-quarter-yard grab bucket on that shovel," Joyce said. "The things you learn on a job like this."

Despite the fact that she has the field all to herself—no other girls are expected to be taken on until early 1955—she doesn't believe in letting her appearance deteriorate.

She wears crisp white blouses and full skirts—"it's a three-quarter-mile hike to work from the wharf"—and her jade bracelet matches the earrings.

Any attachment to the 100 male co-workers?

"None at all," she says. "They're all married."

And if their boy friends at home might have worried, they may rest easy—the girls were fully chaperoned constantly.

They still prefer Toronto, where a national magazine picked them as Canada's three most beautiful girls, and the model agency they work for took them on the New York tour—with photographer, of course.

Joyce Landry, 21, Kathy Diggles, 20, and Joan Hunter, 17, were tired, happy and glad to be going home.

A New York may be "fabulous," Fifth avenue "wonderful," Times Square at night "brilliant," and Rockefeller Center "spectacular," but give them Toronto, Sunnyside, Yonge street, Varsity Stadium, anytime.

Of course, they would like to come back, but only for a holiday.

In fact, Sherman Billingsley, owner of the famous Stork Club, wants them to return to appear on his TV show.

As it was turned up on two TV programs—Dave Garroway's in the morning and Steve Allen's after midnight.

They met comic Jackie Gleason backstage at a Times Square theatre and had their picture taken with singer Eddie Fisher.

They lunched at Sardi's, where the nights are always bright with stars, and the talent scout admitted they had movie possibilities.

While here the girls did a bit of posing, in Greenwich Village, on

Auxiliary Thanks City Veterans

A letter of thanks and appreciation was sent to the Army, Navy and Air Force Veterans for entertaining members of the A.C.T. Legion and auxiliary at a luncheon November 11.

At a recent meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary, Mrs. John Nelson reported on the success of the A.C.T. luncheon and Mrs. M. L. Wilson told of refreshment booth success at recent swine sale. Hospital visitor for next month will be Mrs. John Nelson and the visitor for the Sanatorium will be Mrs. M. L. Wilson.

Mrs. Patrick Kelly presided at the meeting when Mrs. Elizabeth Lederhouse was initiated as a new member and welcomed into the auxiliary. Mrs. James Mein, read the secretarial report, which included a letter from the provincial command, and from the provincial president, Mrs. Donald Cameron of Regina. Mrs. Clifford Courtney gave a satisfactory statement of financial affairs.

Mrs. Lyle Marshall is convener of the bazaar which is to be held Saturday in the Legion clubrooms.

Hostesses for next month are Mrs. Carlton Bromstad, Mrs. Edward Akers, Mrs. Paul Huska, Mrs. Clifford Courtney and Mrs. M. L. Wilson.

After a busy session, lunch was served by the refreshments committee, and an enjoyable hour spent.

YOUR MANNERS

If you like to "chat" on the telephone and are in the habit of calling friends every day or so for a visit over the telephone be sure that you don't do 90 per cent of the chatting.

The quickest way to get a reputation for being a long-winded bore is to do more than your share of the talking.

A boy who is just beginning to date is sometimes at a loss when a girl telephone to invite him to a dance. Teach him to say either, "Yes, I'd like to" or "I'm sorry I can't."

Having a boy hem and haw and say, "I don't know; I'll let you know later" is an awful let-down for a girl.

Norway had 1,022,900 registered employed in September, 1954, and 6,500 unemployed.

Stories of Famous Hymns

by HORACE B. POWELL

JESUS, I COME

Out of my bondage, sorrow and night,
Jesus, I come, Jesus, I come;
Into Thy freedom, gladness and light,
Jesus, I come to Thee;
Out of my sickness, into Thy health,
Out of my want and into Thy wealth,
Out of my sin and into Thyself, Jesus, I come to Thee.

Out of my shameful failure and loss,
Jesus, I come, Jesus, I come;
Into the glorious gain of Thy cross,
Jesus, I come to Thee;
Out of earth's sorrows into Thy love,
Out of life's storms and into Thy calm,
Out of distress to jubilant psalm, Jesus, I come to Thee.

Out of unrest and arrogant pride,
Jesus, I come, Jesus, I come;
Into Thy blessed will to abide, Jesus, I come to Thee;
Out of myself to dwell in Thy love,
Out of despair into raptures above,
Upward for aye on wings like a dove,
Jesus, I come to Thee.

"Jesus, I Come"

Some of the great evangelists of the nineteenth century were preachers. Some were gospel singers, hymnists and composers. W. T. Stebbins and George C. Stebbins, who joined hands and talents to produce the gospel song which appears above, belonged to the latter group. Mr. Stebbins wrote the hymn poem and Mr. Stebbins set it to music.

The same partners turned out another soul-winning favorite, "Ye Must Be Born Again", which has been widely used through the years by evangelistic and mission leaders. This hymn tells the story of Nicodemus, the Jewish ruler who came one night to talk with Jesus about salvation. It is found in the New Testament, in the third chapter of St. John's gospel. In the Bible reference Jesus told Nicodemus: "Except a man be born again he cannot see the Kingdom of God." Revivalists can give plenty of testimonies about men and women who have found Christ through the God.

message of "Ye Must Be Born Again". Stories like that of the administrator of a boys' school in a southwestern American city who one day passed a YMCA building where some young men were singing the Stebbins hymn. The school man joined the crowd which pressed about the singers at the door of the building. Soon they were singing the chorus of their hymn:

"Ye must be born again,
Ye must be born again;
I verily, verily say to thee,
Ye must be born again."

The song message gripped the soul of the man who was listening, as it must have touched many others in the crowd. When someone invited him to return for an evangelistic service that night, he went back to hear the singers again. And, before the evening worship service was over, he had given his heart to who have found Christ through the God.

Chief Justice Of Man. Dies

KENORA, Ont. (CP)—E. A. McPherson, who climbed from clothing store clerk to chief justice of Manitoba, died Thursday while visiting Kenora for a family celebration. He was 75.

The chief justice was stricken during the night at the home of D. E. McPherson, a son who this week celebrated his 25th wedding anniversary. Funeral services have been tentatively set for Monday in Winnipeg.

Early in his career Mr. McPherson was in law partnership with Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, later prime minister of Canada. Later, too, they were political opponents. In the general election of 1926 Mr. McPherson defeated his former law partner in Portage La Prairie. At that time Mr. Meighen was prime minister.

Mr. McPherson was named chief justice of the then Court of King's Bench in 1937 and was appointed Appeal Court chief justice in 1944. The appointment was the culmination of a long and distinguished career in law and politics.

Ewen Alexander McPherson was born in North County, Man., Jan. 27, 1879, but grew up in Portage La Prairie, Man. At 17 he left school to clerk in a clothing store, quitting three years later to study law. He was called to the bar in 1904.

The same year he married Winnifred Finn, and there were three sons and one daughter of the marriage. His wife died early in 1952.

Mr. McPherson entered politics in 1910 and in the next 25 years contested seven elections as a Liberal candidate, winning four. He served 15 years as member of Parliament or provincial M.L.A. In Parliament he represented Portage La Prairie.

SILENT IN HOUSE

He was not a speaker in the generally accepted sense—but when the occasion did call for a speech, he could deliver one with the best of them.

While he was provincial treasurer in the Bracken government in the 1930s, he would sometimes sit for weeks at a time in the house without saying one word. He kept his remarks short and to the point. On one occasion he presented his budget speech in less than 30 minutes.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

When I heard about the hand shown today, played in an important match, I wondered what modern bridge players use instead of red blood corpuscles. The sort of result shown today simply couldn't happen if the players had the right attitude towards the game.

At one table, as the bidding diagram shows, South played the hand at four spades. West opened the ace of hearts, and there was then no way to defeat the contract. South could ruff two hearts in the dummy and would still have a trump left for a finesse through East. The defenders could only one heart, one diamond, and one club.

West could have defeated the contract by leading a trump. Later on, East would win the first round of hearts and lead another trump. This would limit declarer to one heart ruff in the dummy, and the defenders would thus take two hearts, a diamond and a club, defeating the contract.

At the other table, East was allowed to play the hand at four hearts. Since the breaks in diamonds and clubs were fortunate, East made an overtrick. He'd have needed very bad luck, however, to lose the contract.

As you can see, the play of the cards was reasonable enough, but the bidding was hair-raisingly timid. How can West sell out to four spades when there is an excellent chance that both four spades and five hearts are makeable contracts?

When both sides bid up to a fairly high level, and when both sides have sound trump suits, it doesn't pay to sell out too cheap. Instead of letting the opponents play the hand, bid one more of your own side's suit. Perhaps you'll make this contract; and at worst you can't be badly hurt. It's better to go down one trick (perhaps even two tricks) than to let the opponents score a vulnerable game.

West should have bid five hearts on this reasoning. If West had done so, the chances are that North would have adopted the same policy by bidding five spades. By this time it would be clear that neither side was on safe ground, and either East or West could double five spades with confidence in the result.

This rule of bidding once more in a good trump suit doesn't apply, of course, when you are already out of your depth. But if both sides have bid with apparent confidence and safety up to a high level, bid one more rather than sell out.

CARD SENSE

Q—With neither side vulnerable, the bidding has been: South 1 Dmd. Double 2 Dmds. ?

You, South, hold: Spades 8-7, Hearts Q-4, Diamonds Q-J-9-4, Clubs K-J-9-8-7. What do you do?

A—Double. Your hand should be worth about three tricks on defense, and your partner should provide at least three additional tricks. Game seems unlikely, since you have no support for the majors, and a penalty double is your best chance to obtain a good score.

TODAY'S QUESTION

The bidding is the same as in the question just answered. You, South, hold: Spades A-J-8-4, Hearts K-Q-7-5, Diamond 6, Clubs Q-9-8-7. What do you do?

Answer Monday

Steamships Oppose Rails

OTTAWA (CP)—Canada Steamships Lines today opposed a CPR-CNR proposal to give Canadian railways almost complete freedom to enter into agreed-charge contracts with shippers.

Hazen Hansard, counsel for CSL, told a royal commission investigating agreed charges that the railway formula would result in large amounts of traffic being removed from the competitive market.

The railways have proposed that the Transport Act be amended to speed the approval of agreed charge contracts by the board of transport commissioners. They say that agreed charges—special low rates given by the railways in return for a guaranteed percentage of a shipper's business—are the best method devised so far to enable the railways to meet truck competition.

Farmers Still Use Poor Seed In Sask.

REGINA (CP)—Saskatchewan farmers still are using poor seed, the provincial agriculture department announced today.

R. E. MacKenzie, director of the plant industry branch, said a seed grain survey this year made in 14 municipalities showed 40 per cent of seed tested fell into rejected categories, largely because municipalities were missed in a 1953 seed grain survey.

A PRAYER FOR COMPASSION

O God of love and light, whose mercy comprehends all Thy works, grant us a spirit of compassion towards every race and tongue of the human family. May we desire their welfare and full entrance into Thy Kingdom of love. Teach us also to be merciful to all created life, beholding in the small and the great, the weak and the strong, the wonder of Thy wisdom and power. As all things serve Thy purposes, grant that our lives may likewise reflect the splendor of Thine unfolding will. Teach us to be merciful, that we may obtain mercy. Amen.

IN GRANDMA'S DAY

In grandma's day the spinning wheel and the old hand loom were familiar sights. Long before this time, when great-grandmother was young, the girls of the family were taught to spin yarn and weave cloth, and many of the simple garments of those days were the products of their delicate hands.

The spinning wheel and hand loom have gone the way of the wooden plow, the ox cart, and the grandfather's clock. They exist today mainly as relics of a colorful past.

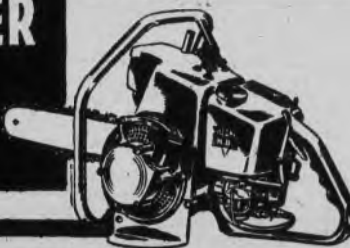

New inventions and new methods are constantly replacing old ones. Human life sweeps on in a world of change. The only abiding things are the things of the mind and spirit; faith, hope, and love are the great eternals.

Man needs a spiritual anchorage in a changing world. And the Church points him to God, who is the same yesterday, today, and forever. He is man's rock and refuge in every age.

Jewelry Store And Barber Shop Open

The Daily Herald, Prince Albert, Saturday, Nov. 20, 1952-4

SFU Sets Dates For Annual Meet

REGINA (CP) — Saskatchewan Farmers' Union officials announced today that the organization's annual meeting will be held here Nov. 30 to Dec. 2.

A highlight this year will be the election of a new president to succeed J. L. Phelps, completing his fifth term as president. Among leading candidates are Percy Wright, former CCF member of Parliament for Melfort constituency, H. O. Hanson of Wilkie, the SFU first vice-president, and Alfred Gleave of Biggar, a director. Government, agricultural and agricultural marketing experts will address the meeting. Last year the annual meeting attracted nearly 2,000 delegates.

FRANK SHINDELKA
F. Shindelka
Knows Trade

Frank Shindelka, proprietor of "Shin's Barber Shop" comes from a family of barbers.

His father, Andrew, was a barber in Winnipeg for 58 years. Frank, who will officially open the spanking new "Shin's Barber Shop" at 57 Thirteenth street east Saturday, was taught the barbering trade by his father.

Frank's uncle, Phil, was a barber in the same shop that his father barbered in. And Frank's brother is a barber.

Mr. Shindelka will serve the public with experience acquired in 24 years of barbering. A resident of Prince Albert for the past seven years, he began barbering in Raymore, Sask., north of Regina.

He was overseas during the war years and upon return, made his home in Prince Albert.

He was formerly a barber in a shop on Thirteenth street west. Mr. Shindelka will occupy his new shop with his assistant, Peter Dyck.

Two new barber chairs, of modern, comfortable design and upholstered in leather are top features in his modern shop. The latest in equipment, including a "ray" type sterilizer, has been installed for the customer.

In conjunction with his barbering business, Frank operates a confection and tobacco bar.

BOLTON, England (CP) — An 86-acre area in the centre of this Lancashire city has been designated a smokeless zone. The 1,050 premises in the area, including 76 industrial plants, will be forbidden to emit smoke.

Timepiece 'Service Centre' Is Feature of Topping's Store

Garnet Topping's new jewelry store on Thirteenth street east may well be called the timepiece "service centre".

Mr. Topping has acquired an extensive knowledge of timepieces in his 12 years of watchmaking experience and he is prepared to bring your watch or clock into smooth running order within 48 hours of the time it is left in his store.

He is officially opening his jewelry store and watchmaking centre Saturday.

Mr. Topping started his apprenticeship course in 1943, under the late John Carment of Carment and Son on Central Avenue.

One year after his apprenticeship was completed, Mr. Topping went into business in the Northern News building on Thirteenth street west.

Now he has moved into new quarters at 55 Thirteenth street east. Mr. Topping may at a later date engage another watchmaker to assist in the business, but at present he is giving personal attention to each timepiece left for servicing. "The best watchmaking in the shortest time and at the least cost" is the yardstick Mr. Topping will follow in his new store. He was born and educated in Prince Albert and has taken an active part in community affairs.

Car Bootlegging Causes Concern

SASKATOON (CP) — A. J. Cameron of Moose Jaw, Sask., a past president of the Federal Motor Dealers' Association, said today that "car bootlegging" is causing great concern to many legitimate car dealers across Canada.

Attending the annual Saskatchewan dealers' convention here, Mr. Cameron said in an interview that some large eastern car dealers near the factories are selling vehicles at "little over cost price to professional used car dealers in Saskatchewan."

He said "these professional dealers" in turn are driving the vehicles into the west for "next to nothing" and selling them at cut-rate prices to the public after setting the cars' speedometers back to zero.

HERALD HOME OF THE WEEK

HOME WORKSHOP

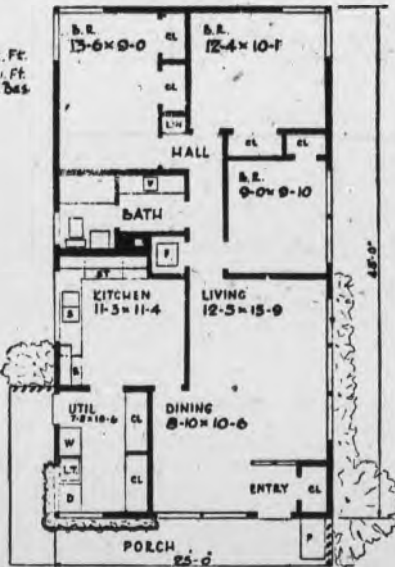

This graceful table is as high as an ordinary card table with top a bit smaller. It is just the right size for two people and snacks. Use it for typing, sewing and the many ways in which a small table is useful indoors and out. If you have a power saw this is really just a one-evening project. The saw lines for the legs are traced directly into the wood from the pattern. The pieces are put together with screws and dowels. To save time in making up the material order, the exact amounts and kinds of material to buy are listed on the pattern. The price of this pattern is 35 cents. Or enclose $1.50 and receive the Useful Tables and Stands Packet of five standard size patterns in addition to the design shown in the above sketch.

This miniature barn is forty inches long and twenty eight inches deep. This is large enough to accommodate a dog of any size except those of the most heroic stature such as Great Danes and the like. Make this barn of outdoor plywood or other weather proof panels and paint it barn red with the scalloped corners trimmed in white. It is so designed that no framing is used. Just saw out the pieces according to the dimensions on the pattern and nail them together. A full-size tracing pattern is given for the scallops which lend a smart effect to the finished job. Pattern 242 is 35 cents. Other outdoor features such as barbecue, name signs, cement stepping stones, storm sash and door canopy are all in the Home Improvement Packet which is $1. postpaid. Another home planned especially for a narrow lot is this smooth, sturdy ranch design that will have your approval at first glance. With the charming exterior of cedar shakes and vertical boards lending both contrast and color, this home with its glassed areas reflects a feeling of spaciousness. Note too the top to bottom picture window. The three roomy bedrooms have ample closet space and the split bath with powder room, is among the modern housewives main requirements. Also noteworthy is the separate entry hall and the large and necessary utility room off the kitchen. A covered entrance lends added comfort. An alternative basement plan is now available for this design. Standard Builders' blueprints costing $8.75 a set may be obtained for this design No. 249. For further information write to: Building Editor, Prince Albert Daily Herald, Prince Albert, Sask.

LEAKY PORCH

QUESTION: I have an open porch that is subject to all types of weather. We have tar paper on it but the water still seeps through. Could you please tell me what can be done to stop the leakage?

ANSWER: I am assuming that you have in mind a porch floor with space or cellar under it. If my assumption is correct, the solution to your problem is to cover such flooring with what is known as roofing canvas. It is not ordinary tent or canvas duck, but a specially woven and treated fabric. Roofing supply houses handle it.

OIL HEATER ALSO GAS HEATER

QUESTION: Is it safe to have an oil circulation heater on the first floor and a gas space heater on the second floor connected to one and the same flue? While some persons have said they thought it O.K. others have said that they thought it could cause an explosion.

ANSWER: I do not believe there would be a serious explosion, if the two heaters were connected to the same flue, but I am quite certain that the draft conditions would be such as to interfere with the operating efficiency of one or the other of the units, and perhaps both. It is not advisable to hook up two heating units to one flue.

FIRST AID TO THE AILING HOUSE

REPAINTING STUCCO

QUESTION: Four years ago we painted our stucco house with regular oil base stucco paint. Now it is cracking. How could I take off the old paint so that I could put on a cement base paint?

ANSWER: About the only satisfactory way to remove paint from a rough surface like stucco is to have it sandblasted off. You get an estimate from a building cleaning contractor for this job.

QUESTION: When we moved in we had a tin smokestack on our house, but now have a brick chimney which was built for our oil furnace. The siding is white asbestos cement and there is a large rust stain on it, caused by the old tin smoke stack. How can I get it out?

ANSWER: Dissolve sodium citrate in 4 parts of water. Then add six parts of commercial glycerine. Mix a portion of this with enough hydrated lime, powdered whiting, or other absorbing powder, to form a paste. Spread this thickly on the stain. When dry, replace with fresh paste. Complete removal of the stain may take a week or more of this treatment.

QUESTION: Will you advise me how to remove tar paint waterproofing from the inside of my concrete cistern so I can cover it with some waterproof coating which will prevent leaking?

ANSWER: The only way this can be possibly done is to have it sandblasted off by a building cleaning contractor.

WHITENING CEMENT WINDOW SILLS

QUESTION: My cement window sills are gray and dingy. Is there any way, other than sandblasting, to whiten them?

ANSWER: If the sills and trim were naturally gray to begin with, it won't be possible to whiten them unless they are painted. If the cement was white, try scrubbing with a mechanics' hand soap, the kind that contains fine sand. Rubbing with coarse abrasive stone may also work, but it will require more "elbow grease."

QUESTION: Natural gas is coming to our town and some people say brick chimneys will have to be relined to prevent acid from burning the gas and eating up the mortar in the brick. How can I protect against this condition?

ANSWER: If the chimney is sound and now has terra cotta lining there is nothing to worry about. Chimneys without lining should have an interlocking metal lining of a non-corrosive type. Heating contractors know about this and I suggest that you consult one.

QUESTION: Would it be all right to put a ceiling vent fan in our kitchen? Several people tell me that they have such fans which vent the kitchen air into their unfinished attics. But I can't help feeling that in time this would not be a good idea. What do you think?

ANSWER: I agree completely with you. Unless the kitchen fan vents to the outside, your attic will be filled with greasy kitchen air and odors.

vents to the outside, your attic will be filled with greasy kitchen air and odors.

FLAMEPROOF FURNACE

QUESTION: I intend to install an air conditioner in my bungalow.

To simplify installation of the ducts, would it matter if the furnace were placed 10 feet from the chimney? The flue would then have two elbows on a 10-foot run.

ANSWER: You may "get away" with this, but I don't recommend it very highly. The furnace should be as near the chimney as possible and with no turns or elbows in the flue.

Since no one has been able to win the cashword puzzle over the last 13 weeks, the Daily Herald and the advertisers of the puzzle page have decided to distribute the prize money over a period of three weeks, dividing the accumulated prize money to date into three lots and giving it to the person or persons with the nearest correct answer. The same qualifications as have been valid on all other contest pages will remain. In case of a tie the prize money will be distributed among winners, in accordance with the cashword rules published previously.

Esks' Jack Parker Can Run, Pass, Kick, Defend

By LORE BRUCE
Canadian Press Staff Writer
EDMONTON (CP)—If Edmonton Eskimos get past Kitchener-Waterloo Dutchmen in Saturday's Grey Cup semi-final—and the odds are 10 to 1 they'll make it—eastern Canada fans will get their first look at halfback Jack Parker.

the pride of Eskimo fans, in the Nov. 27 Cup final.
The 22-year-old American, a big cog in Edmonton's march to the western conference championship, made his debut to Canadian football this season. He can run, pass, kick and defend and his all-round effectiveness has drawn praise from opposition coaches in the west.

The reticent, blonde curly-head, an all-American with Mississippi State after playing high school football in Knoxville, Tenn., gave the impression in an interview that he doesn't particularly care at what position he plays so long as he gets into the game.

"You don't notice any difference after you get used to it," the 190-pound, six-footer said about his switch this season to Canada.
"You get used to one. You play. You never think anything about it after that."

SWITCHED TO HALF
Coach Frank (Pop) Ivy, who learned the split-T at Oklahoma, moved Parker this season from quarterback to halfback.
"It's a lot easier to play halfback," Parker commented. "Sometimes I played quarter when Falmey (Bernie Falmey from Maryland) was hurt."

Fans and coaches alike single out the pigeon-toed galloper who runs like an injured baby moose as an exceptional player.
Edmonton fans picked Parker as the most valuable player on the Eskimo squad this season, quite a change of heart for the customers who had chosen Rolfe Miles, the nimble, little Negro from Washington, D. C., in the previous three years.

Coach Al Sherman of Winnipeg Blue Bombers said before Esks won the WIFU title:
"Parker is the key to the Edmonton backfield. If they had to have a big run, he was doing it. If they needed the big catch, he was doing it."

Parker, a married man with one child, carried the ball in his WIFU debut for 13 touchdowns to lead the conference in majors scored and finish third in the scoring race.
In forwards, Parker had the best average per pass—10.1 yards—among the WIFU's top 10 throwers.

In rushing, he had the highest average in the league—7.9 yards on each carry—and only one-tenth of a yard behind the loop's all-time mark.
In kicking, he was sixth, his longest boot going for 78 yards and he averaged 41 yards a hoof. He made four pass interceptions in the 16-game regular schedule.

Parker may kiss today's battle with the Dutchmen. He has a chipped bone in his foot.
"I don't know exactly what it is. It gets swollen and I can't get the shoe on."
He lay against Winnipeg last Saturday with the foot "frozen" to kill the pain.

EDMONTON (CP)—Edmonton Eskimos, 1954 Western Interprovincial Football Union champions, and Kitchener-Waterloo Dutchmen, the best in the Ontario Rugby Football Union, tangle here tonight for the right to advance to the Grey Cup final.
Esks and Dutchmen are scheduled to start at 8:30 p.m. MST with the winner meeting the Big Four champions at Varsity Stadium in Toronto next Saturday afternoon for the Canadian title.

Esks are 10-1 favorites to defeat the ORFU champions whose offence is built around quarterback Bob Celeri.
The western champions probably will use defensive half Ray Williams for the first time since he broke an arm in the Oct. 4 game against Calgary Stampeders.

Jack Parker, Esks' halfback from Mississippi State, may miss tonight's game because of a foot injury.
Another Edmonton absentee is likely to be halfback Dave West who returned to his Toronto home because of a death in the family.

Onlookers at a Dutchmen workout were impressed by Celeri's throwing ability. The former NFL star also can run and kick well.

TORONTO (CP)—Toronto has lost the services of left-winger Gordie Hanigan for a month, the National Hockey League Maple Leafs announced Friday. Hanigan's hand was broken Wednesday night when he was heavily checked by Jean Beliveau in a game here with Montreal.

Chuck Hunsinger (84), halfback with Montreal Alouettes, is stopped on the Hamilton Tiger-Cats goal-line early in the first game of the Big Four playoffs at Hamilton.

THREE-GAME SUSPENSION FOR DEFENCEMAN LES CLARK

SASKATOON—Defenceman Les Clark of Saskatoon Wesleys has drawn a three-game suspension for his part in Saskatchewan Junior Hockey League stick-swinging incident in Humboldt on Tuesday.

Al Nicholson, the Indian forward who was involved, has had his suspension lifted by league president Lou Withers.

Withers commented:—
"In this instance, it is considered that no provocation gives any player an excuse or the right to strike another with his stick. The nature of hockey makes fighting in some cases seemingly a part of the game but regardless of this, the use of a stick to injure an opponent will not be condoned."

"The suspension is not the penalty of fighting but for Clark striking Nicholson with his stick at a time when the Humboldt player had dropped his stick and gloves", he added.

Sport Fans Don't Mind Wait For Events At Calgary Corral

CALGARY (CP)—Sport fans don't mind waiting for events to start at Calgary's Stampede Corral. They can always study the paintings surrounding the course.

The Corral is primarily a hockey arena but manager Lloyd Turner hasn't confined the pictures to Canada's national winter sport.
"We gave the collection as much of a western flavor as possible and also included as many sports as we could," he says.

SECOND COLLECTION
The collection, claimed one of the best of its kind in Canada, is the second assembled by Mr. Turner. His first went up in smoke with the old Sherman rink here in 1915.

A native of Elmvale, Ont., he was educated at Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., and played hockey there.
It was through baseball, however, that he got his first taste of the West. An accomplished catcher he was hired by Winnipeg Maroons of the old Northern Baseball League in 1905. Two years later, he moved to Calgary as catcher for the Western Canada League cup here.

RETURNED TO CALGARY
After moving back to Fort William, Ont., for a season of hockey and baseball, he returned to Calgary to manage the Sherman rink, then used only for roller skating.
When the Sherman rink burned down, Lloyd managed another Calgary arena and moved around to Minneapolis and Seattle before returning here in 1932 to take charge of Victoria arena.

He helped reorganize the defunct Western Canada League but soon left because of poor ice conditions. In 1935, Mr. Turner canvassed city business men and raised enough money to install artificial ice equipment in the stadium.

Lloyd formed the Calgary Stampede senior club in the late 1930s. It won the Allan Cup in 1946 and the Western championship in 1939 and 1950.
He managed the Stampede rink until the start of the 1953-54 season when Frank Currie was hired.

JUVENILE ALL-STAR CONTEST TONIGHT

Two All-star juvenile teams will meet at the Minto Arena, tonight, at 8:00 with the proceeds toward the promotion of the Prince Albert National Hockey League.

Russians Go Home With More Baggage

LONDON (Reuters)—The Moscow Spartak soccer team, which played two exhibition games in Britain, left by plane for home today with more than $1,680 excess baggage.
The excess baggage ranged from lengths of fine English cloth and musical beer mugs to corn plaster.
During their stay here, the Russians beat Arsenal 2-1. But in their second game they were bluffed 4-0 by Wolverhampton Wanderers, English first division champions.

Four Minute Mile No Longer 'Magic'

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK (AP)—We have a feeling that the track coach at Oxford University, Franz Stampfl, was talking through his topper the other day when he said to an Associated Press reporter:

"A year ago the four-minute mile was called 'the magic mile.' It was nothing of the sort. The four-minute mile was run four times last season and in the next few years it will be run 40 times. In 20 years I expect the record to be 3:50—possibly lower."

The Vienna-born mentor is the man who taught Roger Bannister how to split the wind, and so must be granted a high standing in his profession. But we are of the firm opinion that this is one time he was talking when he should have been listening.

Coach Stampfl is not going to live long enough to see 40 four-minute miles listed in the record books. He probably will not personally ever see another mile run under that figure, since Bannister has asked to be counted out.

MUST BE A LIMIT
We'll even toss in the prediction that this generation will not see two men break four minutes in the same race, as Bannister and John Landy did last summer in Vancouver.

Our feeling, stated simply is that there has to be, some time, an absolute limit to human endeavor. The fact that 32 track and field records have been broken this year, and that boys are growing bigger and stronger from eating fortified breakfast food, doesn't make that any the less true. Some time it has to stop, and we think that in the case of running the mile that point has just about been reached.

Our feeling is that by a chance in a million a couple of super athletes, Landy and Bannister, happened to come along at the same time and to hit their peaks together. We think that the odds against such a thing happening again in our lifetime are extremely long. The kids are getting bigger and stronger, but not as fast as the good coach thinks.

Olson To Defend Against Langlois

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Middleweight champion Carl (Bobo) Olson will defend his title here against Pierre Langlois of France instead of Joey Giardello on Dec. 15, it was announced Friday night. Giardello developed a bad leg and underwent an operation.

George Kantor, Langlois' American representative, said in New York the Frenchman, now in Paris, would leave for the United States in a few days and probably would do his training in California.

This will be Olson's third defence of his championship this year. He previously defeated Rocky Castellani and Kig Gavilan. Langlois is rated by the world boxing federation as the No. 1 challenger for Olson's crown.

Fans Sit In Fog At Pimlico Races

BALTIMORE (AP)—Everybody was literally in a fog Friday at Pimlico race track.
It was so thick the fans were lucky to get a glimpse of the finish of the first race and then they couldn't see the prices on the board in the centerfield. The winner, named Flying Jet, paid $46.60.

HE HAS SILENCED CRITICS
BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK (AP)—Gump Worsley of the Rangers has the same attitude all good goal-tenders go to sleep with.
"Every time a guy takes a shot at my net, he's trying to beat me out of a living."
You'd expect Worsley's opinion to be a bad one in any discussion about the relative merits of National League scorers. He considers them equally farcical.

Worsley has only one exception, however—Bernard Geoffrion of the Canadiens.
"Geoffrion does you no good at all," Worsley explains. "He pours the puck into the net wherever he goes."
Bernie Geoffrion—French-Canadian, 23, five-nine, 175—is the new powerhouse of hockey. In his maiden effort on the big wheel, Boom-Boom Geoffrion smashed 30 goals past goalies to be the Recruit-of-the-Year. Young Geoffrion was held to 22 as a sophomore, last year came back with 29. In the first 13 outings this trip, he had 13. The pace would lead to an incredible 70.

Geoffrion has silenced critics who until this season maintained that he could be handled. This talk came despite three solid campaigns. Experts had the idea, it seems, that Geoffrion was getting away with murder and that the boys would be catching up with him before long. It was implied that he was a bit of a front-runner.

BERNIE GEOFFRION

line. The puck is slipped to one of the back men and he shoots benefiting from a minimum defensive hampering, plus having the goalie at a disadvantage because of the screen the three front men throw up at the goal-mouth.
Geoffrion fires a high, hard one, in direct opposition to the hockey creed that a low shot is the more difficult to handle.

"He doesn't get it off quickly, either," Worsley points out. "It is a slap shot. He winds up to let it go, and it comes like a shot from a gun."

Geoffrion's performance has all but shoved the faded Jean Roy Beliveau, also 23, and who operates in the frame line, from the headlines. It has also somewhat overshadowed the play of his model, another teammate, Maurice Richard, one of the all-time best and still the idol of the French Canadians.

THE ROCKET RICHARD is at an age, 33, where normally there would be a decline in his play, but between this veteran, Geoffrion and Beliveau, it would seem that the Montreal outfit has a splendid chance of stopping the Detroit streak at six straight season championships.

New York Ranger adherents are hoping for their best finish in late years. They feel that they can attain it if Geoffrion can get into the kind of mess he did last season. "That was when he conked out

East Plays West In Coast Game

VANCOUVER (CP)—East meets West in college football here today and the east, as usual, is the favorite.

No title is at stake in the game originally billed as a Canadian intercollegiate championship fixture—between the big, powerful University of Toronto Blues and the eager but winless University of British Columbia Thunderbirds.

An overflow crowd of 10,000, including 2,000 Toronto alumnae now residing in B. C., are expected to be on hand for the 2 p. m. PST kick-off in UBC Stadium, which normally seats less than 8,000.

The UBC gridiron was reported to be in shape for the contest.

The Blues, who finished in a three-way tie for first place in the last eastern intercollegiate conference, ruled odds-on favorites to win at least three touchdowns.

Because UBC played under American rules all season in the Evergreen conference, today's game will incorporate the American rule allowing unlimited downfield blocking. Canadian rules will apply in all other respects.

The game, sponsored by the B.C. Athletic Round Table Society, was originally planned as a Vancouver Grey Cup day and part of this city's drive to bring the annual football classic to the west coast in 1955.

Only the Thunderbirds remain unchanged from the original plans. The eastern collegiate race ended in a three-way tie between Blues, University of Western Ontario and Queen's University, forcing postponement of the finals, originally scheduled today, to Nov. 27.

Toronto, given a bye into the finals Nov. 27, accepted a bid from UBC to play here today.

WINLESS CLUB

Against the experience-loaded Blues, long a powerhouse on eastern collegiate gridirons, UBC puts a club that failed to come through with a single victory all season.

Thunderbirds lost 8-5 in a preseason exhibition game against McGill Redmen, who finished last behind Toronto in eastern play, and dropped all six of their Evergreen conference games against small Pacific northwest American colleges.

Fire Destroys Hockey Arena

MELVILLE, Sask. (CP)—Within hours of a fire which destroyed the $120,000 Melville hockey arena Friday, officials met to discuss building a new rink and the future of Melville Millionaires hockey club.

Stadium company officers said they will investigate the possibility of building a bigger and better rink but no real plans can be laid because of financial troubles.

Melville's recreation committee is scheduled to meet Monday. The town council's recreation and parks committee met Friday night to confer on possible erection of open-air rinks to accommodate children's skating and minor hockey leagues.

Melville Millionaires officials discussed "looking after" the club brought in to play for the players in the newly-formed Saskatchewan intermediate A league.

L. O. Langford, league manager, said: "For sure we won't be seeing hockey in Melville this winter but as far as the future of the club is concerned, we are going to do our best to keep it alive."

He said the four-team league will meet in nearby Yorkton Sunday.

The fire, which started at approximately 3,000 persons, whisked through the frame structure in 30 minutes, shooting flames 300 feet in the air. The ice-making plant, however, suffered only slight damage.

Football Giants Like Leo's Lads

NEW YORK (CP)—So far it has been the baseball season all over again at the Polo Grounds and New York's football Giants hope the comparison holds true all the way.

Like their baseball namesakes, the Giants figured in few pre-season predictions for the National Football League title. And like Leo Durocher's world champions, coach Jim Lee Howell's charges broke fast and are entering the home stretch with a slim lead over their nearest rivals in the NFL's eastern division.

The Giants' 6-2 record is half a game better than that of second-place Cleveland Browns, who had to postpone an early-season game because the baseball Giants were using their park to while the day-lights out of Cleveland Indians in the world series.

There are stiff tests coming up for both the Giants and the Browns this Sunday. Giants entertain Los Angeles Rams, a distant second behind Detroit in the western division with a 4-3 record, but always a threat with their powerful passing attack.

BROWNS VS. EAGLES

The Browns entertain Philadelphia Eagles, who trail them by only half a game and need a victory to stay in the running. But the Eagles also are weakened by injuries.

The Lions, virtually a shoo-in for the western title, visit Green Bay Packers this week while Chicago Bears are at Baltimore and Washington Redskins meet Chicago Cardinals.

In Saturday night's curtain-raiser, San Francisco 49ers, tied with Los Angeles for second place in the western division, must win their game at Pittsburgh to keep their faint hopes alive.

Calgary Ties Canucks 2-2

VANCOUVER (CP)—First place in the Western Hockey League became sole property of Calgary Stampede here Friday night when they settled for a 2-2 tie with Vancouver Canucks after blowing a two-goal lead.

The tie sent the Prairie club one point ahead of Edmonton Flyers.

Sid Finty and Pat Lundy scored for Calgary, both goals coming in the first period. Mid Houghton and Lou Fontinato evened things up for Vancouver.

The light Vancouver forward lines were unable to penetrate the Calgary beef, so it fell to the defence to bull through for both Canucks scores. It was Fontinato's first game and first goal for Canucks since returning from New York Rangers of the National Hockey League.

CALGARY TAKES LEAD

Calgary went ahead when Finty scored at 1:50 while Vancouver's Doug Adam was sitting on an interference penalty. Less than five minutes later, Calgary broke clear by stealing the puck from a Vancouver attack, Gerry Couture passing to Lundy.

Bower slipped going for the puck, got a piece of it, but deflected it into his own net.

Houghton atoned for several misuses by putting Canucks on the scoreboard at 3:24 of the second period in a pattern play with Wiggle Wylie and Billy Dea. Wylie went from the dressing room, limping from a chagley horse.

Calgary scored again, as Fontinato converted a Dea-Vic Howe offering while Wiltink served time for tripping. Bower and the rest of the Canucks' successfully killed off a slashing penalty to defenceman Harry Dick who earned the two-minute rest with hammering checks and several play-making break-aways.

Bell Sparks Regina As Canucks Beaten

REGINA (CP)—Regina Pats, and Bill all missed scoring after taking advantage of weak Moose Jaw clean breakaways. Moose Jaw Jaw checking, pumped home five drew six of the game's 13 minor goals in the first period and sailed to an easy 6-1 victory over the Canucks and a share of first place in the Western Junior Hockey League Friday night.

Regina captain Ev Bell pumped home his 8th and 9th goals and added an assist to spark Pats and extend his own lead in the individual scoring race to 14 points.

Besides figuring in three goals, Flaman and Bell each added the other goals.

John Hutton scored Moose Jaw's goal in the first period, only the second goal Canucks managed against Regina's Joe Selinger in three games.

Victory, before about 1,100 fans, gave Pats 10 points in nine games and a tie for first place with Medicine Hat Tigers. Canucks have only one win in seven starts.

Pats led 5-1 after the first period and wound up scoring with a second period goal.

Regina's three lines overshadowed anything Moose Jaw had to offer but the pick of the evening was Pats' Bell-Harvey Flaman-Collie trio, figuring in three goals. Flaman and Bell each missed scoring on two clean runs at over-worked Johnny Panagiot in the Canucks' goal.

Panagiot turned aside 35 shots while Selinger, the league's leading netminder, tossed aside 21 stops. Selinger turned in 37:27 scoreless minutes before Hutton notched a pretty goal when Regina's defence was caught napping.

Hutton potted his goal after Bell scored twice in the first two minutes of play. Ottenbreit, on a perfect setup by Selinger, made it 3-1 and Schwartz added another for Regina 35 seconds later. In the final minutes of play in the first period, Buchan connected on a well screened shot.

Although the final frame was scoreless, Pat players Danny Wong, Kurtz, Flaman, Schwartz

If Series Even Als To Win Title

OTTAWA (CP)—If the score is tied today at the end of the Big Four playoff series between Montreal Alouettes and Hamilton Tiger-Cats, Montreal will be declared the winner as a result of finishing atop the league standings in scheduled play.

Wes Brown, secretary of the Big Four Football Union, said Friday night the two-game total-point series must end today. Alouettes have a five-point edge as a result of a 14-9 win in the first game at Hamilton Wednesday.

Brown said that if the teams are tied in total points at the end of regulation play, they will take a five-minute rest but must not leave the field.

Then they will play two 10-minute periods of overtime play. If the score is still tied at the end of the overtime periods, Montreal will be adjudged the winner on the basis of a higher league standing.

MONTREAL (CP)—The scalpers went into brisk action Friday night while football-minded hourly became more steamed up over today's decisive meeting between Hamilton Tiger-Cats and Montreal Alouettes.

All 17,163 seats in Molson Stadium at McGill University have been sold out since Tuesday. The number of standees who can be shoehorned into the stadium is conjecture, but there has been talk of a total crowd of as many as 24,000.

Alouettes go into the second game of the total-points Big Four playoff riding on their 14-9 victory in Hamilton Wednesday. They are confident they can win again but the Cats are reported just as confident they can wipe out the five-point margin early and go on to victory and the big prize—a place in the Grey Cup game Nov. 27.

Despite forecasts of mild, cloudy weather with showers, the ticket panic is on full tilt. Friday scalpers were reported asking $13 for $25 tickets or two for $25. By Friday night the asking price was reported as high as $40 a pair.

ADD SPICE

Sauce to the wild scramble was added with offers by individuals to swap playoff tickets for Grey Cup tickets.

So far as the teams were concerned, a dearth of information Friday night lent something of a pre-game mystery.

Alouettes held a light drill and quietly disappeared after the secret practices. The Cats were also reported to have gone through a limbering up, but where it took place was the big question.

Various schools and college grounds in the city disclaimed all knowledge of any Hamilton work-

Robert Christenberry, commission chairman, said: "We won't tolerate any blacklist and nobody can be denied a chance because they don't belong to a certain organization or make certain contributions."

Safecrackers In Operation

TORONTO (CP)—Police said today at least five organized gangs of safecrackers are operating in Ontario. Their total loot in the last three months was more than $100,000.

Ontario provincial police said the gangs are not controlled by any central figure but work hand in hand, each with a specified area. Chief inspector Wilfred Franks of the OPP criminal investigation branch, said most safes are opened by smashing them but in some cases home-made nitro-glycerine is used.

Several times, thieves have charged a safe but been disturbed before it was blown.

"Fortunately, in all these cases so far, our men have discovered it and we get an expert to neutralize the charge," inspector Franks said. "But it's quite possible that some day a business man is going to open his safe without knowing it was charged. The friction alone would be enough to set off the charge."

Police said safecracking has become the most profitable and safe est criminal activity. Fingerprints are rarely found, since radio and television shows have drilled police procedure into the minds of criminals, one officer said.
